Co-Founder & Board Member

Born and raised in Chicago, IL, Keith is the first born of two children, married to his wife Donna for 32 years, father of five and grandfather of one.

Keith received his BS degree in Aviation Sciences in 1982 from Parks College of Engineering, Aviation, and Technology, he was a Marine Corps Officer upon graduation up until 1990. He is a former corporate executive with backgrounds in logistics, warehousing, and procurement. In 2002 Keith left the safety of Corporate America and became the sole owner of a retail camera store and photography studio, turning his hobby into his livelihood. Currently a full time professional photographer in the Chicago area specializing in marketing and advertising photography for clients like Hilton Hotels, Hampton Inn and Suites on the large scale, and numerous small businesses, custom builders, manufacturers and restaurants in the area.

Keith enjoys teaching as well. He was an instructor in the military and hosted many camera classes and photography workshops over the years. Being able to shift gears towards helping military veterans and their families is an exciting prospect and he's looking forward to the successes of Horses and Heroes.
